

NO PARKING
AT ANY TIME

BIO

Markus Gottschlich, originally from Vienna, Austria, grew up in apartment that was once the residence of Beethoven. His musical style seamlessly blends traditional and contemporary elements, captivating listeners with his unique sound. Acknowledged as an expressive and innovative pianist by numerous publications, Markus has received acclaim for his solo piano and trio work. His contributions have been recognized in reputable publications such as Downbeat Magazine, and he has graced prominent jazz festivals and concert series worldwide. Alongside his musical pursuits, Markus is also a dedicated educator, providing mentorship to emerging talents. His career boasts collaborations with Grammy-winning artists, international tours, three highly regarded albums, and notable contributions to film soundtracks.

MARKUS GOTTSCHLICH

Jazz Pianist, Composer, Steinway Artist

PRESS QUOTES

"A lyrical, high-energy, and risk taking pianist"-
Albuquerque Magazine

"...elegant, melodically remarkable ideas"- The Standard, Austria

"The piano is an extension of Markus Gottschlich's personality as truly as the trumpet was a conduit for Dizzy Gillespie."
Jazzreiveiw.com

"Pianist Markus Gottschlich is poised to become one of the country's leading jazz performers."- Miami Magazine

"What cannot be debated is Gottschlich's skill as a player and a painter emotion via music... the wealth of detail, the constant surprise, and the depth of emotion that is present in virtually every moment."- AllAboutJazz.com

STATS

3.2k Followers

680k Plays

Discography

FOUND SOUNDS- 2021
OF PLACES BETWEEN-2013
WHEN THE DAY IS DONE- 2008

Notable Appearances

Miami Beach Jazz Festival
Saulkrasti Jazz Festival
Jarasum Jazz Festival
Vienna Jazz Festival

Collaborations

Bobby Shew, Federico Britos,
Mads Tolling, Gary Campbell
Mike Gerber, Jose Javier Freire,
Yogev Shetrit, Tyra Juliette, Bruce Williams